ARTS

ANDPVA's Indigenous Art Market

IG @indigenous_art_market FB indigenous_art_market 1107 QUEEN STREET EAST

A letter from Market Curator, Barb Nahwegahbow

Over 25 Indigenous artists are participating in ANDPVA's Indigenous Art Market. Everything in the Market is authentic Indigenous made or designed.

The work ranges from beaded necklaces and earrings, paintings, prints and art cards, moccasins, carved moose antler pendants and sculptures, contemporary one of a kind gemstone jewelry, beeswax candles and honey, copper pendants and earrings, wood carvings, Christmas stockings, and more. New works are brought in every week by the artists.

The Market is located at 1107 Queen Street East, east of Pape. Our phone number is 647-391-9938.

We are also on social media:

Instagram - @indigenous_art_market

Facebook – indigenous_art_market

In December, we will be open 7 days a week.

Sunday to Wednesday from 11:00 am to 7:00 pm.

Thursday to Saturday from 11:00 am to 9:00 pm.

Our Market closes Christmas Eve at 7:00 pm. It was intended to be a pop-up Market but we are in discussions about the possibility of a long-term market.

The Market is sponsored by ANDPVA, the Association for Native Development in the Performing and Visual Arts. ANDPVA is an Indigenous arts organization that is some 40 years old and exists to support artists, the development of Indigenous artists and Indigenous arts.

ANDPVA's sponsorship allows for the artists to receive 100% of the sales of their work in the Market.

The artists are primarily Toronto-based but their home territories may be elsewhere. There are seven different Indigenous nations represented amongst the artists.

I hope your parents do visit. Our Market is a wonderful place with so many beautiful things and we are very welcoming.

Thanks so much for including us in your directory.
